Regional cerebral glucose metabolism and attention in adults with a history of childhood autism. Siegel BV Jr, Asarnow R, Tanguay P, Call JD, Abel L, Ho A, Lott I, Buchsbaum MS. Fall 406–414

B

Babinski Response

The Babinski response and periodic limb movement disorder (letter). Smith RC. Spring 233–234

Reply to Dr. Smith (letter). McCall WV. Spring 234

Beta-Blockers

Depression during treatment with beta-blockers: results from a double-blind placebo-controlled study (clinical and research report). Sorgi P, Ratey J, Knoedler D, Arnold W, Cole L. Spring 187–189

Beta-Endorphin

Plasma beta-endorphin levels in post-traumatic stress disorder: a preliminary report on response to exercise-induced stress. Hamner MB, Hitri A. Winter 59–63

Binswanger's Disease

Alzheimer and Kraepelin describe Binswanger's disease. Schorer CE. Winter 55–58

Bipolar Disorder

Anticonvulsants in the treatment of bipolar disorder. Keck PE Jr, McElroy SL, Nemeroff CB. Fall 395–405

Bipolar disorder in idiopathic dystonia: clinical features and possible neurobiology. Lauterbach EC, Spears TE, Price ST. Fall 435–439

The calcium second messenger system in bipolar disorders: data supporting new research directions. Dubovsky SL, Christiano J, Murphy J, Lee C. Winter 3–14

Combined valproate and carbamazepine treatment of bipolar disorder (clinical and research report). Keck PE Jr, McElroy SL, Vuckovic A, Friedman LM. Summer 319–322

Contingent tolerance and reresponse to carbamazepine: a case study in a patient with trigeminal neuralgia and bipolar disorder (clinical and research report). Pazzaglia PJ, Post RM. Winter 76–81

Visual perceptual dysfunction in patients with schizophrenic and affective disorders versus control subjects. Flach F, Kaplan M, Bengelsdorf H, Orlowski B, Friedenthal S, Weisbard J, Carmody D. Fall 422–427

Brain Imaging: See Magnetic Resonance Imaging; Positron-Emission Tomography; Single-Photon Emission Computed Tomography

Bromocriptine

Assessment of bromocriptine intervention for the treatment of frontal lobe syndrome: a case study (letter). Parks RW, Crockett DJ, Manji HK, Ammann W. Winter 109–111

Buspirone

Failure of buspirone and verapamil to improve spasmodic torticollis (clinical and research report). Naber D, Weinberger DR, Gillespie M, Chase TN. Winter 82–84

Differential effects of alprazolam and buspirone upon acquisition, retention, and retrieval processes in memory. Barbee JG, Black FW, Todorov AA. Summer 308–314

C

Calcium
The calcium second messenger system in bipolar disorders: data supporting new research directions. Dubovsky SL, Christiano J, Murphy J, Lee C. Winter 3–14
Capgras' Syndrome
Capgras' syndrome and psychosis in a patient with tuberous sclerosis (letter). Holschneider DP, Szuba MP. Summer 352–353
Capgras' syndrome of self (letter). Neppe VM. Summer 352
Carbamazepine
Anticonvulsants in the treatment of bipolar disorder. Keck PE Jr, McElroy SL, Nemeroff CB. Fall 395–405
Combined valproate and carbamazepine treatment of bipolar disorder (clinical and research report). Keck PE Jr, McElroy SL, Vuckovic A, Friedman LM. Summer 319–322
Contingent tolerance and reresponse to carbamazepine: a case study in a patient with trigeminal neuralgia and bipolar disorder (clinical and research report). Pazzaglia PJ, Post RM. Winter 76–81
Cholinesterase Inhibitors
Aggressive behavior following exposure to cholinesterase inhibitors (clinical and research report). Devinsky O Kernan J, Bear DM. Spring 189–194
